Teacher stopped singing and looked down at Peter. "If you are so glad why haven't you been over to see me before?" he demanded. "I've been been for some time."

Peter looked a little foolish. "The truth is, Teacher," said he very humbly, "I have been visiting the Old Orchand son much and learning so many things there that this is the first chance I have had to come over here. There is something I wish you would tell me: will you?"

That depends on what it is," replied Teacher, eyeing Peter a little suspiciously.

"It is why you are called Ovenbird, "Oh, Teacher," cried Peter, "I'm so glad to see you again.
